A BY LAW,
Imposing a tax on the real and personal property within the city of Annapolis, and the precincts thereof, and to assess and value the same.

Sec 1. Be it established and ordained, by the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council, of the City of Annapolis, that all the real and perso nal property within the said city or precincts, except property belonging to the state of Maryland, or the United States, houses for public worship, the erop and produce of the land in the hands of the person whose land pro-diced the same, of in the hands of the tenant, plantation otensils and stock. the working tools of mechanics and manufacturers, manufactures wearing apparel, goods, wares and merchandize, and all ready money, grain and tobacco, shall be valued agreeably to the d rections of this by-law, and shall be chargeable according to such valuation, with the assessment to be imposed thereby 2. And he it further established and erdained, That John Steele, William E. Pinkney and R. B. Watts be and they are hereby, appointed assessors to assess and value the same.

3. And he it further established and ordained. That each assessor appointed by this by-law, before he shall proceed to act, shall take the following oath, or affirmation. (as the case may be.) "I A B do swear, or solemnly, sincerely and truly declare and affirm, that as assessor for the city of Annapolis and its precincts, I will, to the best of my skill and judgment, execute the duties of the said office dirigently and faithfully, according to the directions of the by law of the Mayor, Recorder Allermen and Common Council of the city of Annapolis, entitled, "A by law imposing a tax on the real and personal property within the city of Anna polis, and the precincts, thereof, and to assess and value the same."

4. And be it further established and ordained. That if any one of the assessors aforesaid, shall die, resign, refuse, neglect, or be rendered incapable to act by removal out of the city or other wise, the Mayor Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council, shall, as soon as may be, appoint some other persons to supply the vacancy.

5 And be it established and ordain ed. That a tax of one per centum be, and the same is hereby, imposed on all the assessable property within the said city and precincts, except as before excepted

6 And be it established and ordain ed, That every person residing within the said city or precincts, when required by the said assessors or any of them. shall give to such assessor a full and particular account of all his or her real and personal property, or the property under his care and management, within the said city or precincts; and the name of the person to whom the same shall belong. And it any person shail refuse, or after ten days notice shall neglect to furnish such account, such person shall for feit and pay the sum of wenty dollars, to be recovered before the Mayor, Recorder, or any one of the Aldermen, in the name of such assessor, in the same manner that small dehts are recoverable in this state, and subject to the same appeal; or in heu of the said proceeding, the Mayor, Recorder, or any of the Aldermen, before whom complaint may be made, shall have full power and authority to commit the party so offend ing to the public gaol of Anne Arun del county for a term not exceeding thirty days, or until he or she shall furnish such account.

7. And be it established and ordained. That if any person whose property ought to be assessed, shall secrete of remove the same, or any part thereof. for the purpose of evading the provi-sions of this by law, he or she shall for feit and pay the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered in the same manner as is provided for by the 6th section of this by law.

8. And he it established and dataed. That the said assessors shall inform themselves by all lawful ways and means of all real and personal proper ty within the said city or precincts. (except as before excepted), and shall immediately on such information pro ceed to value such property, agreeably to the provisions of this by-law; and shall as soon as conveniently may be thereafter, return to the clerk of the corporation a certificate or certificates. in writing under their hands and seals or under the hands and seals of a ma jority of them, of the particulars of all real and personal property within the said city and precincts, and the valua tion thereof, (except as above excepted) in which said return the said assessors shall state separately the valuation of the real and personal estate.

9 And be it established and ordain ed. That it shall be the duty of the Mayor to call a meeting of the corpo ration as soon thereafter as he may think proper, (of which two weeks no tice shall be given by advertisements in the newspapers of this city.) for the purpose of hearing appeals from the judgment and valuation of the said as-

10. And be it established and ordained, That any person conceiving him or herself aggrieved or injured by the judgment or valuation of the said assessors may appeal of and from their said judgment to the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council, pro vided that such appeal be made at or before the meeting of the corporation provided for by the 9th section of this by law.

Il And be it established and or dained. That the said corporation shall remain in session from day to day for six days, for the purpose of hearing such appeals

12. And be it established and ordained. That the said assessors, or such part of them as may make the said assessment, shall receive such compen sation for their services as may hereafter allowed by the said Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council, on consideration of the skill attention and fidelity with which they shall appear to have performed the trust reposed in them by this by-law.
